ALIENATION OF AFFECTIONS CHARGE IN SUIT FOR $50,000

DECLARATION NOW ON FILE
IN DELAND CIRCUIT COURT

SECOND STEP TAKEN IN WHICH
WM. A. BROWN DEMANDS PAY
FROM C. W. OWENS ON AC-COUNT OF WIFE.

With the filing of the declaration in the office of the clerk of the circuit court at Deland late yesterday evening, the second step was taken in what will probably prove the most sensational suit ever filed in Volusia county, a suit for $50, 000 for alienation of his wife's affection, in which William A. Brown is the plaintiff and C. W. Owens is the defendant.

First steps in the suit were taken nearly a month ago, and are said to have followed an alleged altercation at the winter home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Owens on South Ridge road, where Mr.
Brown is said to have suddenly appeared at the house and demanded an explanation for the alleged relations between Mrs. Brown and Mr.
Owens, and a trial in the mayor's court on a charge of assault and battery the following morning is said to have been prevented only by the nonappearance of the complainant.

The same day the trial in the mayor's court was scheduled. Mr.
Brown is said to have gone to Deland and begun in this county the action for suit for alienation of his wife's affections, retaining Hartridge & Hartridge, Jacksonville attorneys, as his counsel in the case. Sheriff Smith came to Daytona the following day to serve the summons on Mr. Owens, but was unable to find the man, so the summons was left with Mrs. Owens at the home.

From that time to this no further progress has been made in the case, so far as the court records show, until the filing of the declaration at Deland yesterday. The declaration sets forth the specific charges and much of it is highly sensational.

Mr. and Mrs. Owens are from Baltimore, Maryland, and Mr. and Mrs. Brown are said to be from Livingston, Mont. Rumor has it that the present suit is the result of an acquaintance between Mr. Owens and Mrs. Brown on a Clyde line steamer coming from New York to Jacksonville early in the season. Mr.
Owens is said to have come ahead of his wife to make arrangements for a cottage for the winter. Mrs.
Owens coming later, and Mr. Brown is said to have followed his wife here from Jacksonville.

DAILY STOCK MARKET REPORT.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—This was a day of excitement in the stock market. Stocks were generally irregular, American Tobacco dropped six and a half points, while Lehigh was one higher, Steel common, Reading and Erie were an eighth up. Cotton opened easy and eight to 11 lower on heavy selling. March was $9.55 and July $9.85.

By noon a bull onslaught on coal stocks brought sharp advances. Central New Jersey advanced five then went two more, Delaware & Hudson went up five and a quarter, Lehigh jumped two and a half, and Reading went three higher.

IMPERIAL FAMILY TO ABDICATE

DOWAGER EMPRESS RATIFIES
PROPOSALS OF THE PREMIER

EMPEROR TO BE ALLOWED AN-NUAL ALLOWANCE OF $2,000, 000 FOR REMAINDER OF HIS LIFE.

PEKING, Feb. 6.—At a conference today, marked by impressive solemnity, the dowager empress informed the republican leaders at Nanking that the imperial family has ratified Premier Yuan's proposals for the abdication of the throne.

The conference was held in the imperial palace in the forbidden city, was attended by a number of Manchu princes and members of the foreign board and marked the passing out of power of the ancient dynasty.

An annual allowance of nearly $2,000,000 is made for the emperor until death, and the allowance will end with his death. The imperial family retires to the summer palace at Jehol.

A bodyguard for the passage of the imperial family from the imperial palace to Jehol will not be allowed, as it is feared this will be used as the nucleus for a Manchu army.

SCHANZ COMPANY EXPLODES ABSURD STORIES CIRCULATED

WILLING TO MAKE AGREEMENT WITH CITY COUNCIL TO OPER-ATE ELECTRIC PLANT CON-TINUOUSLY.

Because of the circulation of stories to the effect that there is a possibility that the Schantz Electric Ice and Water company may close down its electric light plant here in case the gas franchise ordinance is accepted by a vote of the people, to compel the installation of gas connections and meters, Manager E. L.
Gunn of the Schantz company has been notified by the head officers of the company that they are willing to enter into a contract with the city council, in case the gas franchise is accepted by the people, that the local electric plant will be operated continuously, day and night, throughout the year.

The stories concerning the possibility of the present light plant being shut down have reached the ears of the head officers, and to give the people of Daytona the assurance the company has no idea of closing down the electric light plant at any time.
Manager Gunn was authorized to assure the people of this city that as soon as the gas franchise ordinance is accepted by the people the company will make a written agreement with the city council, which will compel the operation of the electric plant continuously.

The stories said to have been circulated about the city in an effort to defeat the gas franchise ordinance when it comes up for vote of the people at the special election to be held February 27, are that there is nothing in the franchise held by the Schantz electric company which compels that company to keep the present light plant in operation, and it was hinted there is a scheme on foot to close down the light plant to compel people to put in gas for light.
The word of the officials to Manager
Gunn explodes all such ideas.

LEADERS OF LABOR ARE ANXIOUS

MANY NOW FEAR INDICTMENT BY INDIANAPOLIS GRAND JURY

LIST WILL NOT BE KNOWN UN-TIL ALL INDICTED ARE AR-RESTED AT PRACTICALLY THE SAME TIME.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 6.— Scores of labor leaders throughout the country are secretly represented here to learn at the earliest possible moment if they are among the ones to be indicted by the grand jury, which is probing the recent dynamiting cases.

The government is zealously guarding the names and the names will not be known until all are arrested, practically simultaneously several days hence.

The charges will be violation of the Federal laws regarding the shipment of explosives and the concealment of knowledge of the guilt of others, in a conspiracy to violate the laws regulating shipments of dynamite.

Arrests are expected in 20 cities, including New Orleans and nearly every large city in the country.

JURORS SUMMONED FOR NEXT CRIMINAL COURT

The regular bi-monthly term of the criminal court will convene at Deland next Tuesday with Judge Bert Fish presiding. The usual docket of petty cases will be disposed of, there being no cases of material interest to be tried at this term of court.

The following jurors have been summoned for the term: B. B. Futrell, J. T. Byrd, Deland; G. W.
Scammell, A. G. Henning, Orange City; Fred Heacock, Daytona Beach; H. H. Hough, A. M. Harrison, Daytona; J. W. Giddens, Hawke Park;

PROMINENT MAN DIES HERE PNEUMONIA PROVES FATAL

THOS. TOTTEN OF SARATOGA SPRINGS PASSES AWAY AT HOSPITAL AFTER ILLNESS OF
TWO WEEKS.

Thomas J. Totten, a prominent business man and resident of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., died in this city at about 5 o'clock this morning of pneumonia.

Mr. Totten, who was 59 years of age, came to Daytona three weeks ago for the benefit of his health and was a guest at the Saratoga Inn, being well acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Baker, J. J. McGuire and other Saratoga people at that house. He was improving nicely until Sunday, a week ago, when he contracted a cold which developed into pneumonia. Mrs. Totten was telegraphed for and reached here Sunday evening and was with her husband from that time until he passed away this morning.

Mr. Totten was a Forist, conducting a large business and having under glass two acres or more of ground. The remains will be sent north tomorrow, accompanied by the widow.

E. W. Houghton, who came here a few weeks ago in company with his wife and has been occupying the C. C. Barnes cottage on North Palmetto avenue, died this morning at 11:30 o'clock, following an attack of pneumonia. Mr. Houghton was 77 years of age. The remains will be forwarded to Chicago, Ill., accompanied by the widow, a son and a grandson, who joined Mr. and Mrs.
Houghton in this city since Mr.
Houghton was taken sick.

Dr. J. E. Rawlings has been called to Lake City by the death of President Tribble of Columbia university, whom he visited for a few days earlier in the season. President Tribble's death is the result of a recent automobile accident in which he suffered a broken leg and probably other injuries from which he failed to recover.

WILL BLOW UP WRECKAGE ON BEACH

MAYOR TO TOUCH OFF FUSE
LATE TOMORROW AFTERNOON

PLAN TO REMOVE HULL OF
SCHOONER NATHAN P. COBB, WRECKED NEAR HERE 15 YEARS AGO.

If you hear a terrific explosion at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, don't be alarmed. If you want to be fully informed on what the explosion is and see the results of it, journey over to the automobile clubhouse on the beach, be there promptly at 4 o'clock, and your curiosity will be satisfied.

That is the time set by Mayor Tous to dynamite the piece of wreck age lying on the beach, party covered by sand, directly in front of the automobile clubhouse. The charge of dynamite will be put in place and ready for the fuse to be touched off at 4 o'clock. After the explosion of the charge of dynamite the piece of wreckage will be blown—well, it will be blown somewhere.

The large piece of wreckage is a part of the hull of the schooner Nathan P. Cobb, which was wrecked about a half mile south of Ormond 15 years ago. The schooner was laden with cross ties when she went onto a bar and went to pieces.
One man was drowned, but all other members of the crew were saved.

Since the wreck, the large portion of the hull which came up on the beach has been washed and re-washed, thrown up on the sands by incoming tides and taken out again as the tides went out and carried up and down the beach between Daytona and Ormond, gradually drifting this way because of the more prevalent northeast winds, until finally it has landed directly in front of the clubhouse.

The piece of wreckage is far enough up on the beach to be an obstruction to automobiles and vehicles on the beach at low tide and it has been decided best to blow it up with dynamite and get it out of the way. The act of blowing it up will be an interesting one to witness.

SECURED FINE BUCK ON LAST HUNT OF SEASON.

Charles James of Banning, Pa., and D. O. Fisher of West Baden Springs, Ind., made the final deer hunt for the season the forepart of last week, with John Roberts as guide. The hunt was made in the Harwood section and Mr. James, who has been very successful on other hunts earlier in the season succeeded in shooting a fine buck that would weigh 150 or more pounds. Mr.
Fisher was with him at the time and was prepared to bring down the deer had Mr. James failed. The hunters returned Wednesday which was the last day of the season open for deer shooting.

ELKS WEEK SURE TO BE GALA EVENT

FIRST PART OF NEXT WEEK WILL BE LONG REMEMBERED

EXCITEMENT WILL BEGIN
EARLY AND LAST LATE AND EVERYBODY IS ASSURED A RIP, ROARING TIME.

Arrangements for the big carnival and home week celebration to be given under the auspices of the Daytona lodge of Elks next week Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, are rapidly nearing completion and the indications are the celebration will be the most interesting affair of the kind ever given in the city.

The affair will be continuous for the three days and will be the real social event of the season. It will be held at the New Daytona theater and the beautiful new Elks home building, the street space between the two buildings to be also used to accommodate the various booths, shows and entertaining features.

The excitement will start early and last late and there will be fun and amusement for everybody.
The Elks will hold full sway in the city for three days and it will surely be a gala occasion.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the carnival and celebration includes F. M. Rowe as president, J. D. Maley as treasurer, L. Adler and M. L. Stanley as general managers, and the members have been working energetically to make this a notable event in the history of Daytona.

Mrs. M. L. Stanley, general manager of the women's committee, has worked incessantly to make the celebration a success and is ably assisted by the following committee:

Mrs. Louise Adler, in charge of the fancy table, including arts and crafts.
Mrs. Ernest Mil's, in charge of the cone booth.
Mrs. Charles Nusbaum and Miss Marion Thompson, in charge of cakes and ice cream.
Miss Lillian Bingham, in charge of candies and delicacies.
Mrs. H. Eugene Johnson, in charge of soft drinks.
Mrs. T. O. Melton, in charge of dining room and quick lunch.
Mrs. Orie Crenshaw, in charge of tea garden.

Mrs. Russell A. Smith, in charge of cigars and smokers' articles.
Mrs. M. B. Aukman, in charge of domestic booth.
Mrs. F. N. Conrad, in charge of handkerchief table.
Mrs. W. E. French, in charge of poetry bed.
Miss Dora Williams, in charge of grab bag.
Miss Mabel Zimmerman and Miss Marian Thompson in charge of the valentine booth.

In addition to all these there will be fortune telling, snake charmers, side shows, and a big country store. Mr. Gunn and Mr. Garrison will have charge of the electrical display and will also have a booth to show the many ways in which electricity can be used.

It is suggested by the committee in charge that all persons make it a point to decorate their homes and business places to help make the general display a striking one.

HOTEL CLARENDON
President E. L. Potter of the Clarendon Hotel company and Mrs. Potter entertained very delightfully at a dinner party Monday evening at their attractive winter cottage on the Boulevard, the entertainment being in the nature of a celebration marking the anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Potter. Covers were laid for eight and besides the host and hostess the following were in attendance: Mr. and Mrs. Raymond G. Keeney, Hartford, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Bond, DeLand, Miss Helen Foote, Daytona, Mrs. R. E. Fenton, New York.
Miss Metz of New York, a guest at the Clarendon, made a daring airplane flight Saturday night with Aviator Page, being the first woman to make the air flight here. The distance covered in the flight was ten miles and at an altitude of 300 feet. One of the children on the beach remarked, "that lady is surely a high flyer."

THE DESPLAND
Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Perkins of Hartford, Ct., and Samuel E. Elmore, who have been guests at the Despland started Monday morning for their bungalow near the Beed, Knox and Beed groves, taking along some supplies for a stay of some days. The trip was made in the chartered boat, Floridian, Capt. H. A. Perkins, and friends at the hotel, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon of Enfield, Ct., and Mrs. Abbey of Hazardville, Ct., were invited to make the trip and return on the boat. All went well until on the return when the Floridian went around off No. 9. Part of the crew rowed ashore after damage had been done to the engine and telephoned to the Despland hotel, the hotel automobile then bringing the party home. C. G. Perkins controls the Hartford Electric company of Hartford, Ct.

The Making of Chipped Glass.
Sheets of glass that are covered with a shell-like raised pattern are in use for screens, partitions, electric light fixtures and other purposes. This chipped glass, the pattern is often really chipped out of the surface, involves a process that is interesting. The sheet of glass to be treated is placed under a sand blast in order to give it a grain. This ground surface is next treated with a solution of good glue, and the glass is placed in a drying room on a rack, where it remains for some hours. Next the sheets of glass are removed to the chipping room, where they are placed on edge back to back, with the coated surfaces outward. This room is heated by steam coils, and when the heat is turned on the glue reaches its utmost degree of desiccation and curls off the glass in pieces from the size of a dime to that of a silver dollar, but it adheres so closely to the glass that in its effort to get free it tears a place off the surface, the result being a beautiful pattern.—Harper's Weekly.

The Logical Name.
"What a queer name for a child," said the woman who had just moved next door. "Are you sure they named it Breeze?"
"Yes, indeed, and it is a most natural name for the child," was the reply.
"I suppose it's the outcome of a cheap joke on the father's part," sighed the new neighbor. "When the child is naughty he is likely to suggest a spanking Breeze."

"Not at all, though I'll mention that to him," said the other. "You see, the family name is Storm. Before she was married the mother's name was Wind—Augusta Wind. Upon marriage her name became Storm, of course, making it Wind-Storm. Now, when the little girl was born they were puzzled about selecting a name. They could not agree until some one said a little Wind-Storm might be called a Breeze. The little one is just like her mother, and a little Gusto Wind is"—
But the new neighbor wouldn't stay to hear the rest of it.—New York Press.

Getting the Bank's Help.
Financial ability is not alone the power of getting moneyed men's ears and interesting "big capital." The bank is the bulwark of small business. Given an enterprise that has a legitimate excuse for being and available assets, if it is backed by men of integrity, it can always command the support of its bank for working capital. Yet it is astounding how many small businesses start without even conferring with a bank or banker. This is a mistake. The man who wants to finance a small concern successfully should get acquainted with his bankers, keep them in touch with the business and afford them every opportunity to analyze its condition. There is no finer security than the confidence of your bank, and the cost of getting capital in this way is very small indeed compared with the cost of underwriting more or less inflated issues of stock.—Business.

Never.
"Never" is a word which is wrongly defined in the dictionary. In that book we gather the understanding that "never" means not at all, forevermore.
But—
Each day in our broad land young women vow that they will never forget a young man.
Men lift their right hands to high heaven and swear that they will never take another drink.
Husbands promise never to forget to write every day.
Wives promise never to make another extravagant and foolish purchase.
Candidates swear that they will never run for office again.
Women say they will never speak to some one any more.
In all these cases "never" means any length of time from one hour to four days.—Life.

Broke Three Legs.
"Yes," said the small boy to the reporter, who was looking for some news to put in his paper; "mother fell downstairs and broke three legs."
"Pshaw! What are you giving me, youngster?" cried the reporter. "Don't be too funny. Your mother hasn't got three legs."
"I didn't say she had," retorted the wicked boy. "The legs belonged to a table which mother fell against. She wasn't hurt at all."

John o'Groat's to Land's End.
The distance in English miles between John o'Groat's, in the extreme north of England, to Land's End, in the farthest south, is about 480 miles as the crow flies, though by the ordinary lines of travel, of course, the distance is something more than that.

Revenge.
"That fellow cut me out in a very underhand way."
"Yet you are going to the wedding?"
"Yes. I may get a chance to soak him with an old shoe."—Exchange.

Tit For Tat.
He—What do you women do at your club? She—Talk about the faults of you men. What do you do at yours? He—Try to forget the faults of you women.—Boston Transcript.

Hannibal's Downfall.
The fate of Hannibal turned upon the result of a promenade. It was after he had crossed the Alps and entered Italy, with winter quarters established at Capua. His residence was one of the best houses in the city, and while walking in the garden he heard a female voice singing not far away. Struck by the tones of the voice, he issued an order that the singer should be brought before him. He was so greatly impressed by her charms that he at once attached her to his household, disposing of the husband by beheading him. Retribution followed closely upon the cowardly perpetration of the outrage. The balance of the winter was devoted to pleasure, discipline and drills were practically abandoned, and with the advent of spring the Carthaginian army was so demoralized by the dissipation of the city that its prestige was lost, and with it came the downfall of Hannibal.

The Sara-Kabbah Fashion.
The Sara-Kabbah people of central Africa adopt the hideous fashion of wearing large wooden disks in the lips, the one in the upper lip about three inches in diameter and that in the lower six inches. "These ornaments," says Mr. Karl W. Kumm in "From Hausaland to Egypt," "restrain the wearers from previous conversation. One of the chiefs, when I asked him the reason why they disguised their women, informed me that their forefathers had developed this habit in order that the women might exercise no attractions for the Muslim slave raiders."

Warning a Serpent.
Down in Bermuda Mark Twain made a speech about snakes to a group of little girls. The speech was great. The only trouble was that the little girls could not appreciate it. It flew over their heads. This was the humorist's conclusion:
"Never warn a serpent in your bottom. It is far easier to warn it by placing it under the pillow of an intimate friend."—Harper's Weekly.

Recklessness.
Singleton—Wigwag seems frightfully despondent. He says he doesn't care what happens to him. Henpecked—The first thing you know that fellow will be going off and getting married.—Philadelphia Record.

Bungalow.
The word bungalow is an Anglo-Indian version of the Hindu banga, which primarily means Bengali, or of Bengal, and is also applied to a thatched hut.

Fitting Trait.
"Young Biffins' infatuation for pretty Miss Gladys is merely puppy love."
"I suppose that accounts for his dog like devotion."—Baltimore American.

Idleness is the sepulcher of a living man.—Holland.
For hope, which glides the snows where they fall, Discounts the hour which brings the time of ball.
It richly glides this first of all events And puts a round around the baseball game. —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Note For the War Cry.
Two beautifully dressed women got on the car and entered into a discussion of their household cares and worries. Finally when the subject of jelly was reached one said to the other: "Yes; we tried some crab apples last year, but the stuff wouldn't sell, and we had to give it to the Salvation Army."—Life.

After reading the story of the fire in the Detroit City newspaper, many readers would wonder why the fire department was not able to put out the fire. The reason was that the fire department was not equipped with the best of fire-fighting equipment.

That there is a feeling among the members of the Daytona board of trade not to pay the amount agreed upon for the space given Daytona and vicinity in the souvenir booklet issued in connection with the Oversea celebration at Key West recently, was gained from the expressions at the regular meeting of the board last evening. The sentiment is that Daytona and vicinity was not given the presentation agreed upon. Only routine matters were considered by the board at the meeting last night.

Love, Politics and High Finance. In the play "The Lion and the Mouse," which will be seen at the New Daytona theater in the very near future, is a strong love story and the battle between the lovers and the strong-willed old politician and high financier, the father of the boy. It's an intensely interesting story from start to finish.

The Useful Verb "To Get." There is no word, long or short, in the English language capable of performing so much labor in a clear, intelligible sense as the verb to get. And here is an old time specimen of its capabilities.

"I got on horseback within ten minutes after I got your letter. When I got to Canterbury I got a chase for town, but I got wet through before I got to Canterbury, and I have got such a cold as I shall not be able to get rid of in a hurry. I got to the treasury about noon; but, first of all, I got shaved and dressed. I soon got into the secret of getting a memorial before the board, but I could not get an answer then. However, I got intelligence from the messenger that I should most likely get one the next morning. As soon as I got back to my inn I got my supper. When I got up in the morning I got my breakfast and then got myself dressed so that I might get out in time to get an answer to my memorial. As soon as I got it I got into the first chase and got to Canterbury by 3 o'clock, and about tea time I got home."—Ave Maria.

Wellington's Subtle Retort. Wednesday, 19th October, 1839—Lord Fitzgerald made us laugh at dinner today with a story about John Wilson Croker, whose pertinacity of opinion is well known. He was laying down the law after dinner to the Duke of Wellington and, according to custom, asserting the superiority of his own information on all subjects, having even flatly contradicted the duke, who had mentioned some incident that had taken place at the battle of Waterloo. At last the conversation turned upon the use of percussion caps for muskets of the army when Croker again maintained a directly opposite opinion to that which was urged by the duke, who at last good humoredly said to him, "My dear Croker, I can yield to your superior information on most points, and you may know a great deal more of what passed at Waterloo than myself, but as a sportsman I will maintain my point about percussion caps."—Thomas Rakkes' Journal.

The Larch in Labrador. The soil and atmosphere are so cold and dry in faraway Labrador that scarcely any vegetation thrives at all. The larch is a species of pine tree which is found in all northern countries, but its growth is so stunted in Labrador that a specimen found on the most southern part of that dreary land was but nine inches in height and the trunk was but three-eighths of an inch in diameter. A careful examination of the miniature tree revealed its age to be at least thirty-two years, for there were that number of ring growths shown in its small trunk. The very cold currents pouring down from the north and the fact that Labrador has less sunshine than Alaska, together with several inland climatic conditions, make the summer seasons shorter and colder than are those of Alaska.—Exchange.

The Smoky City. A Pittsburg man once submitted a Pittsburg story to a New York magazine and got a wire from the editor: "Will accept story if cut out libel." So the Pittsburg man hurried over to New York and asked the editor whom he had libeled. "You have libeled your native city, sir," was the reply. "Why," said the editor, turning over the manuscript, "don't you say here on page 23 that the heroine clutched the air desperately?" "Yes. Go on." "And then two paragraphs further down you say she washed her hands. Well, that?" The editor frowned angrily at the author. "That, sir, is a foul and disgusting libel on Pittsburg's air."—Detroit Free Press.

Told Him His Fate. Family secrets will out. It has been the ambition of an Overbrook mother to marry her daughter to a young civil engineer who is on the road to brilliant success. But the young man, much in love with the daughter as he is, has not fully decided whether to ask her to marry him.

Visiting at the home the other evening, the young man encountered little Bobbie. "Are you going to marry sister?" asked the lad. Much embarrassed, the visitor stammered that he didn't know. "Well, you are," returned Bobbie, with emphasis.—Philadelphia Times.

As We Speak It. A German who had come to America to master our language was being shown behind the scenes of a vaudeville theater by one of his American friends. "That man," said the American, indicating an actor with a wave of his hand, "is taking off his makeup to make up for another take off." The German departed sputtering.—Success Magazine.

He Might Be Offended. "See that dog, Kathi? It has taken the first prize at ten shows and is valued at 1,000 marks." "I wonder if I dare offer him a bit of sausage?"—Filegende Blatter.

Same Thing. "Reggie invites me out to dinner every other evening." "I suppose you just dote on him?" "I table d'hôte on him!"—Satire.

Slow Game. Madge—Was George fooling while you were playing golf? Marjorie—Gracious, I hope not! Why, I accepted him.—Lippincott's.

African Giants. There are many giants in Africa nine feet high. Some of them weigh 300 pounds and are strong enough to kill a panther at one blow. Perhaps you think such big fellows must be clumsy, but they are not. They can run faster than any horse, springing twelve to fourteen feet at a leap. This all sounds like a fairy story, but not so when you hear that these African giants are ostriches.

In New York. "The woman across the hall from us is dead." "How did you find that out?" "Why, I happened to see it in the paper."—Life.

Beginning Young. Parent—Is my boy precocious, do you think? School Principal—Very. He told the teacher he had been sitting up with a sick friend.—Puck.

Sincerity is the basis of all true friendship. Without sincerity it is like a ship without ballast.

Feeling For Death. For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to tend them, that precaution seemed not at all necessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

"I am looking for craps on the door," one old man told her. "They don't like to let us know here in the asylum when any one dies for fear of making us feel bad, but they put craps on the door, and by feeling for it when we pass in and out we can find out for ourselves when one of us has gone."—New York Press.

How Fielding Spelled His Name. The Fieldings are an ancient race, and the Denbigh earldom dates from 1022. By the way, there is a funny story as regards the family name and its spelling. The author of "Tom Jones" was one of the race, and the then Lord Denbigh said to his relative: "Why don't you spell your name 'Fielding' as the rest of us do and not 'Fielding'?" The writer made answer, "Because I am the first of the family who learned to spell."—London Gentlewoman.

Climate and Food. In the arctic regions human food is almost exclusively animal, because that is the only sort which is available in quantity. In the tropics, where vegetable food is abundant and animal foods readily decay, plant products are and always have been of very great importance in the diet. In temperate regions all kinds of food may be secured, and it seems reasonable to suppose that all kinds have always been eaten as they are today.

Awaiting the Test. Pilgrim—If I come in will that dog bite me? Mrs. Hawkins—We ain't no ways sure, mister. But the feller that let us take him on trial said he'd chew up a tramp in less'n two minutes; but, land sakes, we ain't goin' to believe it till we see it done.—Chicago News.

He Got the Limit. "Do you believe there is anything prophetic in dreams?" "Believe it! I know it. Only the other night I dreamed that I was at a church fair and awoke to find that my wife had been through my pockets and taken my last sou."—Exchange.

He Knew. "It's the first $1,000 that's hard to get," explained the eminent millionaire. "I know that," responded the mere man. "I've been trying to accumulate it for the past forty years."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Light itself is a great corrective. A thousand wrongs and abuses that are grown in darkness disappear like owls and bats before the light of day.

If These Towns

with the best of fire-fighting equipment can burn why not Daytona?

NEW YORK, Jan. 10—The fire in the Equitable Life Assurance company's building, which started yesterday morning and gutted the big granite and marble structure, is still burning today and the city firemen are working hard to subdue the flames.

Between $1,000,000,000 and $1,500,000,000 worth of securities are locked in the vaults of the big building and the vaults in the ruins are being strongly guarded by a cordon of police.

It is now known that seven lives have been lost in the fire and others may be in the ruins. The Equitable officers declared today that some of the policyholders will lose a cent because of the disaster. By hard work the firemen have been able to keep the blaze from spreading to other structures in the vicinity.

Big Plant Destroyed—EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., Jan. 10—Three acres of buildings comprising the plant of the Commercial Acid company two miles south of this city were destroyed by fire this morning. The cause of the blaze was an explosion and the loss will amount to $200,000.

Boston Tenement Burns—BOSTON, Jan. 10—The four-story tenement building at No. 10 Willard street burned this morning. Two women and one man, all Italians, were burned to death and many were rescued from death by the forming of a human chain to a nearby building.

Many Buildings Burned—BERKLEY SPRINGS, W. Va., Jan. 10—Two business blocks, five residences and a church were destroyed by fire here this morning. The blaze originated in a bakery and the total loss will reach $150,000.

Bad Fire in Chicago—CHICAGO, Jan. 10—The warehouse of the Creamery Package Manufacturing company on West Kinzie street was destroyed by fire this morning with a loss of $100,000. In the Northland hotel, next door, 400 guests were thrown into a panic and all were driven out into the streets in the zero weather when the roof of the hotel caught fire.

The large list of candidates who want to be elected aldermen is suggested by the members of the city council whose terms of office expire with the coming city elec-membership in the city council this year one of the most interesting in recent years. The race among the candidates for aldermen is even more interesting than that for the job of mayor.

A MILLIONAIRE TRAMP
AT THEATRE TONIGHT
"A Millionaire Tramp," coming tonight at the New Daytona theatre, is a unique production of wholesome and instructive entertainment, and is a revelation of the nature of crime and revealing the mysteries of the workings of crime in some of the big cities. The story is a very pretty love story of heart interest, showing what disappointment will cause some unscrupulous villains to resort to crime to blast and ruin the life of another, and how, by the untiring efforts of the ever-watchful detective, crime finally gets its reward and justice achieves its victory over wrong-doers. The management of the present company has spared neither labor nor expense to interpret the great play, and has surrounded the same with scenic effects suitable to the action of the play, giving it the appearance of life. Many pleasing and novel specialties will be introduced during the act of the play.
